

Delivering intelligent, precise & creative solutions

Founded in 1986, Ambro is a full service event agency that consistently delivers intelligent and effective business events to a diverse range of clients.

We understand that delivery is the cornerstone of any assignment and with our seamless project management team of unrivalled expertise, we will always remain central to the project ensuring value to the conference organiser and meeting the necessary criteria and budget.

Whether niche or mainstream, we will be consistent in our passion of delivering unrivalled events, continually pushing the boundaries as we progress towards nothing short of perfection.

Rarely is there one solution to a brief, we will plan, research, deliver and evaluate every element of your event.

At Ambro Events, 'old-fashioned' values still exist, we won't over-promise or underwhelm, we believe in long term client relationships where a promise is the kind that doesn't ever get broken
