

Wine Tasting & Dinner

BESPOKE EVENT

The Cellars Berry Bros & Rudd

3 St James's Street, London
SW1A

Berry Bros. & Rudd is the UK's oldest wine and spirits merchant and can trace its origins back to 1698 when the Widow Bourne founded a grocer shop opposite St. James's Palace. The historic wine shop at 3 St. James's Street, remains virtually unchanged since it was built in the 17th century.

Today the present generations of Berrys and Rudds continue to manage the family-owned wine merchant business from the same premises.

The Cellars

Let us create for you a bespoke day or evening event at this exclusive venue at the heart of central London.

At Berrys', you can experience Wine Tasting and Cellar Dinner with some of the the world's iconic wine estates being introduced to you, within the 312-year-old vaulted London Cellars of Berry Bros & Rudd or the exclusive Townhouse.

From world renowned Bordeaux châteaux and Champagne Houses, to exclusive New World boutique wines, you can choose your preferred tasting for your guests, hosted by a Wine Master.

The Cellars - Located beneath the wine shop in the heart of central London, prior to their renovation these were the largest working cellars in the capital.

The Napoleon Cellar, named after Napoleon III, is the setting for larger wine tastings, luncheons, dinners and receptions whilst the smaller Sussex Cellar, hidden beneath one of Pickering Place townhouses, can be used for smaller dinners or in conjunction with the Napoleon Cellar.

The Napoleon Cellar can accommodate up to 36 guests for a reception, tasting and sit down dinner.

The Townhouse houses' The Long Room can host a private dinner and tasting for up to 14 guests.
